The Southern Pacific Rail Road.

On the 6th of this month we received the following telegraphic dispatch from Marshall, the head quarters of the Southern Pacific Rail Road Company

MARSHALL, TEXAS, April 1.—The State suit for the forfeiture of the Pacific Railway charter has been decided in favor of the old company.

Day before yesterday, the 13th inst., we received the following further information by telegraph:

MARSHALL, TEXAS, April 6.—The old and new Pacific Railroad Companies have compromised all difficulties satisfactorily. The old company is to have possession.

To understand the first dispatch, it is necesary to know that the State of Texas began suit against the company for a forfeiture of its charter, because it was alledged that the company had failed to report to the State its condition as required by the charter. It was found out upon investigation that the company had made the required exhibit, and that the charge of default had been gotten up by the enemies of the road. Hence the State suit was dismessed as stated by the first telegraphic dispatch.

The second dispatch is well understood by those who have informed themselves as to the war that has been going on for some time between the old company and the new. Hard times came upon the company, and President Yerger made an assignment to get money sufficient to make miles enough of road to secure the charter. Another version of this assignment is that it was made for the purpose of taking the road from the old stockholders, and giving it to a new company. The last version is believed to be the true one by many of the old stockholders, from the fact that a law was gotten through the Texas Legislature to make good the sale of the road under the deed of assignment. If it was the intention of the deed only to secure the charter, there was no necessity for this law to make forever binding the sale to the new company under that deed of assignment.

It matters not, however, now that the controversy is settled, what was the real and ulterior object of the deed of assignment which led to the war between the old and new companies. President Fowlkes took hold of the thing in earnest, resolved to save the old stockholders, and he has done it. He has whipped out the new company by some means or other, and restored the road to the rightful owners.

President Fowlkes deserves the credit of all that has been done. After calling several conventions of the stockholders, and arousing those who had furnished the money to get the charter and make the first twenty-five miles of the road, to the danger in which they were of losing their all, and raising money from them to protect their interests, he went to Texas with a number of associates to assist him in making a compromise with the new company. The multiplicity of counsel, however, failed, and they all went home. President Fowlkes returned to the seat of war to fight the battle according to the dictates of his own clear and unassisted judgment. He has conquered the enemy while thus fighting alone, and therefore deserves all the honor and credit that must spring from the settlement of the difficulties.

Of course these remarks are made upon the supposition that the dispatches we have received, present the case fairly. No particulars are given in the dispatches, and we shall have none until the Marshall and New Orleans mails reach us. We take it for granted, however, that the dispatches set forth the result of the negotiations between the old and new companies as it is. And such being the fact, it may be well to recur to figures heretofore made, to show what the old company get by the adjustment of these difficulties.

In November last, President Fowlkes, at the meeting of stockholders in this city, submitted the following statement of the assets of the Company:

Unpaid assessments due on stock, averaging $2 80 per share	$270,000
From this, however, about $1,000 has been received and appropriated to the $827,000 debts.
Bond and mortgage secured	850,000
Lands in Mississippi, not now saleable, but worth	15,000
Lands in Texas, depots, &c.	40,000
Twenty-five miles of road at $30,000 per mile	750,000
250,000 acres of land granted by Texas, even as low as $3 per acre	768,000
Due on unpaid stock	18,000
And on further unpaid subscriptions at New Orleans	50,000
Total	$2,291,000

At the same time he showed that the entire indebtedness of the company did not exceed $500,000 This would leave a balance of $1,791,000 in favor of the stockholders of the old company, now again to be restored to their legal rights.

Of course this calculation did not take into consideration the value of the charter of the company, which is considered by many to be worth millions of dollars. The charter is for a road clear across the State of Texas—a distance of nearly 800 miles—giving to the company 10,000 acres of land, and lending it $6,000 of the Texas school fund at 6 per cent. for every mile of road completed. Here would be about 8,000,000 acres of the finest lands in Texas, made by the road itself to be worth from fifty to an hundred millions of dollars in a short time—enough to pay for the whole road, and to refund the State loan, and to divide out as much more among the stockholders.

This news is very encouraging to the stockholders whose spirit has been drooping ever since the trouble began between the old and new companies. Stock that was considered worthless by many will now have a value, and cease to be thrown away or used as waste paper. And all that is necessary hereafter to be done to make the Southern Pacific Rail Road the grandest enterprise of the age, is to have its future management in the hands of honest, competent, industrious, economical, and reliable men.

Is it credible, is it possible that men who in the palmy days of American politics fought under the great Whig leader, and who profess still to revere the cause in whose behalf his splendid energies were spent, will now, before his bones have well mouldered in the dust, and here, in the sacred presence of his tomb, sue merely for the privileges of hanging on to a party which not only hunted his bright and lordy spirit to the grave, but has just struck them scornfully from its "skirts" as "a selfish and disorganizing" excrescence?—Lou. Journal.

Truly, the above is a strange question to be asked by an editor who once wrote a life of Henry Clay, and pretended to stand by that great man while he lived, but, so soon as he died, seduced all of his partizans he could influence into the garrets and cellars, and dens and caverns, and sink holes and back-alleys of Know Nothingism and took an oath with them and as many Democrats as were susceptible of the same political insanity, to destroy the old Whig party forever, and to erect upon its ruins the Know Nothing organization!

The following article from that excellent and reliable paper, the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, will be read with interest. It does not offer much hope or consolation to the "Oppositionists," who will find that when the day of trial comes, Pennsylvania will be almost absolutely certain to cast her vote for a national, conservative man for President—such an one, for instance, as Kentucky presents to the nation in the person of Hon. James Guthrie:

THE LATE ELECTION IN PENNSYLVANIA—THE CAUSE OF THE DEFEAT OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—The newspaper press, at home and abroad, has teemed with speculation and opinion as to the causes of our defeat at the late election. Some good things have been said in this connection, and some things exceedingly silly and weak. For ourselves, we have prefered to let the smoke and confusion of the battle pass completely away, before proceeding to investigate the causes of the disastrous result. We were convinced, at an early day, that our party had been right soundly thrashed—that Billy Patterson had been struck—but we were in no hurry to identify the perpetrators of the wrong. Some say the Kansas question did it; others that it was the tariff clamor, and not a few that it proceeded from a spirit of discontent in our own ranks, about the President's appointments and disappointments. The Black Republicans have been endeavoring to make the world believe that they did the whole job themselves. The Americans say it never could have been accomplished without their valuable aid, and Col. Forney is confident that he is the Sparrow that killed Cock Robin. There can be no doubt that our party suffered to some extent from a spirit of discontent about the dispensation of the President's patronage, and still more from our family feud about Kansas; but it is too obvious that the controlling cause was the clamor raised about the tariff—the necessity for protection, &c.—deriving its force and effect from the hard times—the prostration of business, by which thousands and tens of thousands of laboring men have been deprived of employment. We must confess that our first inclination was to conclude that our defeat had been produced by the division in our ranks on the Lecompton question; we attached but little importance to what we had been so often told before the election, that we should lose the votes of thousands of the laboring men in the mining and manufacturing districts, simply because they were out of employment, and felt disposed to hold the party in power accountable. But an examination of the election returns, has convinced us that our first impressions were erroneous, and that it was the clamor about the tariff, and not the Lecompton imbroglio that caused the overthrow of our party. The facts and figures are irresistable on this point. They show to a demonstration that our defeat did not proceed from the anti slavery, but from the mining and manfacturing districts—from a section of the State which has always stood up firmly amidst the wildest agitation of the slavery question. Take for evidence, the vote in the counties of Allegheny, Beaver, Bradford, Butler, Erie, Elk, Indiana, Jefferson, Lawrence, McKean, Mercer, Potter, Susquehanna, Tioga, Venango, Warren, Washington, Wyoming, and Wayne, in all 20, being those in which the question of slavery has uniformly wielded the greatest influence, and it appears that the majority against Mr. Frost, the Democratic nominee for the Canal Commissioner, and an open and avowed Lecompton man, was but 18,815 votes, whilst the same counties in 1856 cast a majority of of 29,478 against Mr. Buchanan for President, being a Democratic gain in the Free Soil counties of the State since 1856 of 10,660.

Then turn to the manufacturing and mining districts, composed of the counties of Carbon, Centre, Chester, Clarion, Huntingdon, Blair, Lehigh, Schuylkill, Luzerne, Montgomery, Philadelphia, Montrose, Burks, Dauphine, and Armstrong, 15 in all, and it is seen that in these Mr. Frost was beaten by 6,500 votes, whilst in the same counties in 1856, Mr. Buchanan had 23,061 majority, being a change against the Democratic party of 29,616 votes! By deducting from this aggregate the total majority against Mr. Frost in this State, 25,234, and it will appear that the entire change since 1856 was produced in these fifteen counties.

These facts are very conclusive. Whatever may have been the cause, it is true that we gained largely in the North and West on our vote of '56, and lost at a most disastrous rate in the mining and manufacturing districts. Other facts can be given to confirm the view we present; for instance, our neighbor, Col. Martin, who was a candidate for Congress, and known to be dissatified with the policy of the Administration on the Kansas question, and who was stoutly advocated by Col. Forney, and yet he was beaten as badly as was Mr. Frost, a Lecomplon man. Gen. Foster was Anti-Lecompton, and still he shared a common fate with the others. Mr. Pershing had no connection with the Kansas question, and had taken open ground in favor of the admission of Kansas, regardless of her population, and no man in the State fared worse. The cases of Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Hickman cannot be presented against this view, for they were virtually the nominees of the Republican party in their respective districts.

Let our friends of the West and elsewhere, who seem inclined to jeer us about our recent defeat, reflect on these facts. They cannot fail to be convinced that had we encountered no other element of opposition than the slavery question, against which they contended, we should have carried the State at the late election by a handsome majority. Of this they can be assured.—Whenever, and as often as the contest in Pennsylvania turns solely upon the abolition question, the Democrats will carry the State; and further, whenever Mr. Seward becomes a candidate on his blood Rochester pronunciamento, Pennsylvania will reject him by the most decided vote of any State North of Mason & Dixon's line.

Our friends have only to stand firm by their former faith; resort to no expodients to gain strength, but simply stand by the Constitution and the rights of the States, and the rights of the citizens of the States, and in 1860 we shall give the mong rel enemy such a defeat as they have not hand since 1852.

More Voices from the Hawesville Jury.

On the 9th of this month, we published a letter signed by Thomas M. Newman and Levi D. Butler, two members of the Hancock county Grand Jury, who voted for the indictment of the murderers of Thomas S. Lowe. These gentlemen were not willing to rest beneath the deserved odium attached to the disgraceful report forced upon them by a majority of that Jury, and appealed to the public, through our columns, to relieve them from the shame which attached to the innocent, as well as the guilty. Four other gentlemen upon that Jury, have followed the example of Newman and Butler, and sent us similar letters for publication. They are Wm. Adams, the foreman, William G. Pyle, Pius Montgomery and Elisha Head. The following is what they have to say upon the subject:

HAWESVILLE, KY., April 12, 1859.

Editors Louisville Courier: I desired to show you how I stood in the Jury room in the unfortunate affair of T. S. Lowe in Hawesville, as foreman of the Grand Jury which investigated and reported on the killing of this unfortunate man at this place, but being aware that the law required that the vote of each juror should be kept secret, I hesitated about doing it. But while at Evansville, Ind., a few days ago, I saw that two of the jurors had written to you on the subject, and the votes of the jurors by some means having became public here, I think it due to myself to say that I was foreman of the said Jury and differed with the majority (who, however, I doubt not, were as honest as I was in what they did.) I was in favor of an indictment; and so voted and objected to signing the report as made out, but believed that it was my duty to do so, as a majority was in favor of it. Yours, &c.,

WILLIAM ADAMS.

HAWESVILLE, April 13, 1859.

Editors Louisville Courier: It has been my intention, for some weeks past, to avail myself of your columns to say a few words in regard to the action of the late Grand Jury in the case of the unfortunate Lowe's murderers. I was a member of that jury, and one of those who voted for an indictment, believing, as I conscientiously did, that it was a most aggravated case of cold blooded murder. I feel called upon to make this statement from a sense of what is due to my friends, myself, and the community in which I live.

Yours, with respect, WM. G. PYLE.

We, the undersigned, authorize Wm. G. Pyle to say for us that we also voted for an indictment.

PIUS MONTGOMERY,
ELISHA HEAD.

We have now the disclaimer of six members of that Grand Jury as to any share in the shame of the report it made and published to the world, justifying the murder of one of their fellow-citizens because he was a dangerous man, and because some white-livered cravens were afraid of him. There are yet ten members of that jury from whom we have not heard. The following are their names:

Lewis J. Lane, Elias Ford, Milton Lawson, A. B. Terrill, Anderson Freels, Jas. Q. Miller, R. A. Barker, W. A. Williams, Uriah Martin, and Samuel Pell.

☞ It is stated that Jenny Land's fortune has been squandered, and that she is about to attempt to make another. She is advertised to sing in England.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE TRIAL OF HON. DANIEL E. SICKLES

Tenth Day's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Court was opened this morning at about the usual hour, but did not but commence business till half past 10 o'clock.

It is stated that the prosecution was prepared, if Mrs. Sickles' declaration was received, to give in evidence the fact that in January last Mr. Sickles and a lady not his wife remained during a night in Barnum's Hotel, at Baltimore. The register of the hotel was in Court for that purpose. It appears, however, from this register that there is first the entry of Mr. Sickles' name in his own handwriting, then the name of Mrs. Dan'l E. Sickles in a different handwriting, neither hers nor his.

This preparation shows that if Judge Crawford had admitted the confession a vast quantity of scandal on both sides would have been brought into the trial, involving persons whose names are not yet mentioned in the affair.

George B. Wooldridge was the first witness called for the defense.

Examined by Brady—I reside at No. 34 Twelfth street, Washington; came here in the latter part of November to be present at the organization of the House of Representatives; was a clerk under the clerk of the House; knew Key at that time; never spoke to him but once or twice; on Saturday, 26th, I was in Fifteenth street from very close to 10 o'clock till 3; saw Sickles that afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock at the capitol.

Question—What was, at that time, his appearance and condition?

Answer—When I went first to him he appeared different from what he had been the day before; he was in the hall at the rear of the Speaker's chair; we had a conversation; I got him to go into a retiring room and there parted with him after endeavoring to pacify him; he was very much affected and distressed; there was no one with him in that room when I left him; saw him no more that day; saw him next morning about 10 o'clock in the library of his own house; his eyes were bloodshot and red; he approached me and told me he had sent for me to come there; he had been weeping; I remained in the house till all the strangers had left it in the afternoon.

Question—What was his condition during the day?

Answer—He acted like a man in great sorrow and distress, so much so that I watched for his coming and going constantly.

Question—Why?

Mr. Carlisle—That is not material. Witness said there was a strange manner about him every time he came into the room where I was; he pressed his hands to his temples and would go over to the secretary and sob; he appeared as if he was in great distress; every time these fits came upon him he would clasp his temples and sob and cry, so much so that I told him to give vent to his tears, they would relieve him; he would raise his hands and exclaim sometimes; these fits would take him before he could get to the secretary, where he went as if to hide himself, and then he would bow down his head.

Witness saw Key passing opposite Sickles' house looking towards it and waved his handkerchief several times; Sickles came into the library where witness was and said that the villain has passed my house; he was very much excited; attempted to calm him; he threw off witness' grasp and turned into the hall without a hat; that is the last I saw of him till he came into the house with the officers.

States Rights Convention.

HARRISBURG, April 14.—The Democratic States Rights convention adopted resolutions to the following effect:

That we are here to-day to resist every attempt to weaken or overthrow the creed of the Democratic party, to unite for the purpose of restoring in all their vigor and purity, the great truths that have heretofore made the Democracy the conquering organization who have contributed to the enduring welfare of the Union; that this convention most solemnly declares its warm attachment to the union of the States, to maintain which it pledges all its powers, and that for this end it is our duty to oppose every infraction of these principles, wh ch constitute the only basis of that union, because a faithful observance of them can only secure its existence and our public happiness; that we are bound to regard the Administration as having forfeited the confidence of the people, and to denounce it as unworthy of the support of the Democratic party; that the attempt of the Administration to disregard the covenant of 1856, and in its stead erect a despotic test to compel obedience to doctrines subversive of Republican liberty, was the work not of the Democratic party, but of men who had resolved upon ambitious purposes; that we endorse the principles of a popular executive with the franchises of the people of the States; that we repudiate the platform of the convention of March, and that no matter what the decision of the Supreme Court may be on that abstract question, still the right of the people to make a slave territory or a free territory, is perfect and complete under the Nebraska bill.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

The Fillibuster Movement.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The Ledger's New York correspondent, speaking of the Cuban revolutionary reports, gives n few facts in regard thereto, which he says are worthy of credence:

Fact 1st—On the 28th of March, the bark Giga cleared from this port for Havana by Mora & Bros., a Spanish house. The vessel was consigned to W. H. Riversmith, and there is every reason to believe that she had a hundred fillibusters on board, and a liberal supply of arms and ammunition.

Fact 2d—On the day following the Mazatlan cleared for Fernandina, Florida, by J. Eward & Co. The informant declines to he specific in regard to the real character of this vessel, but intimates enough to justify the suspicion that she is a fillibuster.

Fact 3d—The principal partner in the firm of Mora, above alluded to, is related by marriage to the famous fillibuster, Gen. Goicouria, the Treasurer of the Cuban Junta.

This, then, establishes a direct connection between the barque Giga and the fillibustering interest here, and goes far to strengthen the suspicion that there is really something in the wind. The Spanish Minister is in town, sorely disturbed in relation to these movements. The U. S. Marshal is in great tribulation. He has set a watch upon a couple of schooners at anchor off the battery.

Nicaragua News.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The times says the Senate of Nicaragua had rejected the Belly contract on account of the large land grant contained in it. M. Belly had left for Nicaragua, and still entertained sanguine hopes of success.

The last accounts report that the Cass-Yrissarri treaty had been ratified by the Congress at Managua and signed by President Martinez with two amendments, viz: that the United States should not land troops in Nicaragua without the special permission or invitation of the Government, and that in case of the escape of fillibusters from the United States naval forces and troops may be landed for their capture. The latter clause seems to neutralize the former.

Railroad Accident.

MADISON, April 14.—The engine and baggage car of the passenger train going North, on the Jeffersonville railroad, were precipitated, owing to a bridge over a small stream giving way, into a creek near Amity, at 3 o'clock this morning.—The engineer, Henry Snipes, was instantly killed, and the fireman badly injured.

River and Weather.

PITTSBURGH, April 14, M.—River eleven feet three inches.
Departed—Anglo Saxon.
Sold—Steamer Lucerne to Alton city for $5,500, to be a regular packet to the foot of the falls.
CINCINNATI, April 14, M.—River risen three feet in the last 24 hours. Weather clear and windy. Very heavy rain last night.

THE VESPER GAS OR AIR LIGHT.
The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World.

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety and simplicity, far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixtures is so simple that it is not liable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burnt in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from odor while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced, by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no flickering or unsteadiness in the flame. The Vesper Gas light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever an artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all tastes, from the plain single light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chandelier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single light burner to the expensive chandelier, are miniature gas works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not exceed the cost of ordinary gas fixtures of similar styles and ornamentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application.
MERCHANTS
visiting Louisville should not fail to procure the Vesper Gas fixtures for their stores.
CHURCHES, HOTELS, PUBLIC HALLS AND PRIVATE RESIDENCES
throughout the State can now be fitted up with those elegant and convenient chandeliers, and other beautiful gas fixtures, which add so much to the appearance of such places, and to the comfort of the home circle, and which, heretofore, could be used only in those favored districts embraced within the coal gas limits of large cities.
The limited space of an advertisement precludes the insertion here of the numerous testimonials of approval we have received from all quarters. Suffice it to say, scientific men and others who have examined and thoroughly tested the merits of the Vesper Gas light, pronounce it the best and cheapest artificial light now known.
☞ The proprietor respectfully requests responsible merchants in every town and county in the State to correspond with him, believing they will find it to their interest to aid him in introducing this unequaled light to their customers.
Vesper fixtures and Coal Oil, prepared expressly for this burner, kept constantly on hand, and for sale wholesale and retail.

FALLS NAVIGABLE — TRIBUTARIES FLOODED.—The River is rising quite fast, with fully 8 feet water on the falls for steamboats last evening. In the canal there was 11 feet water by the mark, which is a rise of 2 feet in the preceding 24 hours. This makes the falls again navigable for large boats. The weather was clear and quite cool all day, with some fears of frost last night, and if it was cold enough for frost the fruit will assuredly be killed. The night, or rather the morning previous, there was a good deal of heavy rain, followed by a tremendous storm of wind, which happily did not do much damage.

The river at Cincinnati yesterday had risen 3 feet, with heavy rains the night previous at Pittsburgh, with 11 feet in the channel.

The officers of the mail boat report Kentucky river again rising, and all the Northern tributaries are reported at full tide from the effects of the late rains. By passengers by railroad, we learn that the Wabash was at flood height, and over its banks at Vincennes, and much damage and delay expected on the line of railroads by the flood. The White river was also reported unusually high, and rising all along its course.

The Cumberland and Tennessee, at the last advices, though very high, were falling fast.

The storm, night before last, knocked the boats about in port at a fearful rate, and the Empress, along side of Sand island, at Portland, was torn from her moorings, and blown up-stream a good distance on the bar.

The flood in the lower Mississippi, instead of being exaggerated, has not been fully estimated. From the officers of the Pacific, from New Orleans, we learn that the river, at Vicksburg, was estimated at nine inches higher than the flood of last year, and 6½ inches higher than ever was known in that vicinity. At Natchez the river was swelling slowly, and was 2 inches higher than last year. At island 100 it was fully 8 inches higher than the flood of last year, with the river actually over its natural banks at all the level shores, extending some distance up the levees, with fears expressed that stormy weather and a rough river would break the levees in hundreds of places, and work more ruin than ever was known. In addition to this, the inroads of the crawfish along the levees have been fearful, making them crumble and disappear, in places where, on the surface, they appeared perfectly sound and strong.

The river above Memphis was falling pretty fast, having receded at that point from 18 inches to 2 feet, and the Arkansas river reported low and falling at the last dates. The planters along the lower river have now had two consecutive seasons of overflow, which will prove highly disastrous to their crop prospects, if it does not prevent them from planting altogether. At present it is unprofitable to the steamboat trade, as our packets are unable to take freights to plantations, there being no landing place to be found.

☞ The Woodford, J. C. Fremont, and Tecumseh were one from New Orleans last night.

☞ Owing to the high winds which prevailed yesterday, the arrival of boats due was much delayed, and the Chancellor, in ascending the falls, light, was blown about at will, and most of the time was running side ways, broadside on, like a hog going to war.

BOAT SOLD.—By dispatch from Pittsburgh, we learn that the Lucerne has been sold to the Alton Company for $5,504 to ply the upper river trade.

☞ The Pacific cleared for New Orleans last night, with a fair trip, including a lot of 400 sheep. She leaves New Orleans on her next trip on Friday, the 22d.

☞ The Die Vernon, Capt. John Martin, was brought up the falls, yesterday, to the city wharf. She goes to St. Louis to-morrow, Saturday.

☞ The Lebanon and Cheesman descended the falls yesterday, on their way to St. Louis, full of people.

☞ We learn that the Crescent City is at Evansville, loading for New Orleans.

☞ There was a wedding party on the Scioto last night, the bride going from New Albany.

☞ The John Raine, from New Orleans, is due early to-morrow morning. She returns to New Orleans in the evening.

☞ Thanks to Messrs. Halliday and Taylor, clerks of the Alvin Adams from Memphis, for a river memorandum. The Adams ascended the falls and landed at the foot of Third street.

FOR CAIRO AND MEMPHIS.—The fleet Alvin Adams is the regular mail and passenger packet for Cairo, Memphis and way places this evening. She starts at five o'clock, from the city wharf, in charge of Capt. Lamb—a thorough boatman.

☞ The Telegraph No. 3 is the mail and passenger packet for the East to-day. She starts at noon, connecting with the 6 o'clock trains at Cincinnati the next morning.

☞ We credit the following to the Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday:

The tow-boats Coal Hill, Lake Erie No. 3 and Niagara at the bar here from Pittsburgh to-morrow, with 25 barges of coal, consigned to Jos. Smith, Jr.

The Glenwood, coming up yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, sheered on the pilot while coming through Colona's Ripple, and run into a tree. The larboard chimney was suddenly lowered, and a few feet of her larboard hurricane roof and fancy railing demolished. Damage $400.

☞ The Woodford, in charge of Capt. Irwin, a thorough boatman, is due from New Orleans, and is advertised to return this evening. She will be able to ascend the falls and start from the city wharf. The clerk is H. B. McLaughlin, one of the most attentive in the trade.

☞ The Bowling Green, Capt. Conner, is the regular coast packet at 11 o'clock to-day, for Leavenworth.

☞ The flickman, now at the wharf, goes to the Arkansas river to-day.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE TRIAL OF HON. DANIEL E. SICKLES.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The witness was asked whether he had made any communication of an exciting natnre to Mr. Sickles at the capitol.

Mr. Ould objected, and an exoited discussion ensued between him and Mr. Stanton, who accused the public prosecutor with being actuated by a thirst for blood, and that he limited actuated the prisoner to vengeance.

Mr. Onld replied warmly, terming one of the counsel a bruiser and bully.

Mr. Stanton responded, saying, that the principle claimed by Mr. Ould would lead his client to the foot of the gallows. He had not the honor of Ould's acquaintance, and after his language did not desire to cultivate it. [Great sensation and applause from the spectators.] He ended by defying Mr. Ould'a remarks.

The argument was closed by Mr. Carlisle, after which the Judge decided the evidence not admissable.

John Cuyler, A. E. Young, Charles Bacon, and Selby Parker were examined—Saw Key waving the handkerchief.

William Rapley—Saw Mrs. Sickles and Key on the avenue, on Thursday, before the tragedy; the latter showed a letter which he had been reading.

Thomas Brown testified to getting Jacob Wagner to take the lock from the door of the assignation house.

Jacob Wagner testified to the same effect.

Court adjourned.

During argument Messrs. Stanton and Carlisle had a sharp rencounter, and the proceedings of the day were quite spirited.

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The Courier des Etats Unis gives a long statement of the loss of the ship St. Paul, and the massacre of 330 persons on board, both sailors and passengers. The St. Paul belongs to Harre, and was making at the time of her loss, a voyage from China to Australia, with a load of Chinese emigrants. The vessel was lost on one of the numerous islands of the Lonisade Archepilago.

The wreck took place on the 11th of September, but the passengers escaped from the peril, and an English vessel was hailed. It was too small to carry away all the unfortunates, and 330 were left till word was taken to Sidney, and another vessel was sent to their relief. This relief expedition arrived at the place in December or January, and found of the 330 individuals, that but one Chinaman had been saved, all the others having been massacred by the savages, amid the most cruel tortures.

Arrival of the Overland Mail.

MEMPHIS, April 14th.—The Overland mail of the 21st ult., arrived, 77 hours ahead of time. News unimportant.

NOTICE TO STEAMBOAT CAPTAINS AND OWNERS.

THE undersigned, having many years experience as FALLS PILOT, respectfully informs steamboat captains and owners that he will continue to pilot steamboats, flatboats, barges, etc., over the Falls. I will meet boats at Jeffersonville at any time or hour that I am telegraphed to be there. All dispatches of inquiry in relation to the water on the Falls will be promptly answered by me, and at my expense.—Steamers wanting orders for COAL at Hawesville, can obtain them of me, and pay for the coal on the return trip.
